

Jenny Hood

Vice President, Supply Chain
Compass Minerals

Jenny Hood joined Compass Minerals in 2019 as vice president, supply chain. In this role, she guides the company's North American supply chain strategy to effectively and efficiently move essential mineral products from source to customers.

Hood has a breadth and depth of industry experience in supply chain management as well as international transportation and logistics. Before joining Compass Minerals, she served as vice president of transportation at Contura Energy. Prior to that, Hood was vice president of marketing and logistics at Bowie Resource Partners.

Hood holds an Executive Master of Business Administration from Virginia Commonwealth University.